

L A M E R

Surveyor assistant

Surveyor will be assisting in various types surveying and data collections. These include topographic surveying, hydrographic surveys and UAV mapping, setting out surveying, engineering measurements and ecological (terrestrial and marine) surveying. Responsibilities of the surveyor assistant for wide range of projects include;

- Liaise and assist managing and implementing survey related works for various types of projects.
- Under the guidance from the lead surveyor, carryout data collection, compilation, digitization etc.,
- Support and assist project team to collect data for various types of environmental studies, including active engagement in field visits, preparation of project reports and related documents.
- Ensure all the necessary equipment's, forms, maps and other materials needed in the field are in working order before travelling to the field.
- Development of necessary skills required in various fields to completed the designated tasks
- Routine maintenance of the survey instruments and equipment

Inhouse training

- Acquaintance with inhouse equipment
- Use and application of various types of software for various data outputs
- Report writing skills
- Diver training (if required)

Qualifications

- O/L or A/L
- Competent swimmer
- Open water diver qualified
- Basic computer skills

Job type

- Permanent

Remuneration

- Negotiable